

2010 Holy Family CYO Role Model

Liz Chefalas

Liz has been an integral part of Holy Family CYO for the past 10 years assuming the position of CYO Treasurer. This position is a vital part of our program requiring extraordinary organizational skills; it is a year-round position with very little down time and recognition. Registrations, refunds, banking deposits, budgets, account management, etc. are just a few of her responsibilities. Liz has managed our programs' finances with great success and financial stability while also promoting and participating in numerous fundraising events. Liz can always be found behind the scenes lending her support.

Liz lives in Hicksville with her husband Bob and 4 children; Ryan, Kaitlin, Megan, and Erin. All of Liz and Bob's children have gone through our programs and Liz continues to balance not only our CYO checkbook but the numerous responsibilities of home life, working, and Holy Family CYO. We thank Liz for all the sacrifices she has made in order to make our program the best; sometimes at the expense of her own family.

In addition to her CYO responsibilities, Liz has also been very involved in Holy Family School. She is the most giving, selfless, reliable, trusting and kindhearted example for our children to emulate. We are honored to have her on the CYO Board and appreciate all the time and stewardship she has given to the children of Holy Family Parish.

It is with great pride, love and admiration that we have chosen Liz Chefalas as our 2010 CYO Role Model.
